

How to Get to KIT from Kanazawa Station by Taxi

1. Exit the east gate or the west gate of Kanazawa Station.
2. If you exited the east gate, there is a taxi stand just ahead on your right.
If you exited the west gate, there is a taxi stand on your right.
3. It usually takes about 20 minutes from Kanazawa Station to KIT, but it depends on the route and on road conditions.

How to Get to KIT from Kanazawa Station by BUS

If you are coming to KIT from Kanazawa Station by bus, we recommend that you get information in advance from hotel staff, etc. In addition, please be aware that it gets crowded during the morning rush hour.

There are many routes to get to KIT from Kanazawa Station by bus. Followings are the simplest routes with no transfer.

How to Get to the Bus Stop to KIT

1. Exit the east gate of Kanazawa Station.
Then, there is a bus terminal in front of your left.
2. Walk to the bus stop #10.
3. Take the bus #33, #34, or #39 at the bus stop #10.

The bus number is displayed on the front, on the side, and on the back of the bus, along with the destination in Japanese.

The morning bus schedule with the final stop at Kanazawa Institute of Technology (KIT) is as follows.

Bus #39: departs from Kanazawa Station bus stop #10 at 7:26 → arrives KIT bus stop at 8:05,
Bus #33: departs from Kanazawa Station bus stop #10 at 7:56 → arrives KIT bus stop at 8:31,
Bus #34: departs from Kanazawa Station bus stop #10 at 8:41 → arrives KIT bus stop at 9:25,
Bus #34: departs from Kanazawa Station bus stop #10 at 9:06 → arrives KIT bus stop at 9:44.

The other buses #33, #34, and #39 which depart from Kanazawa Station bus stop #10 in the morning also stop at KIT bus stop, but that is not their final stop.

Bus Stop #10.

The number “10” is displayed at the top of the pillar.

How to Ride a Bus from Kanazawa Station to KIT

1. Prepare 360 JPY in cash. You can exchange 1,000 JPY note, 500 JPY coin, and 100 coin for small coins at the change machine on the bus, but we recommend that you have exactly 360 JPY on hand just in case.

Please note that national transportation IC cards such as Suica, PASMO, and ICOCA cannot be used.

360 JPY in coins.

You can also use other coin combinations.

2. Board the bus from the rear door.
3. When boarding, take a numbered ticket from the ticket machine located to the right of the bus entrance. You do not need to pay at this time.

4. It usually takes about 35-45 minutes from Kanazawa Station to KIT, but it depends on the route and on road conditions. In the worst cases, it may take more than 50 minutes.
5. Before the bus arrives at the KIT bus stop, but after it leaves or passes the previous bus stop, press the nearby button to let the driver know that you want to get off at the next bus stop. If the buttons already lit at that time, you do not need to press any button. In case the final stop of the bus is the KIT bus stop, you also do not need to press any button.

In case of bus #33 #34, and #39, the previous bus stop is the Kanazawa Red Cross Hospital bus stop. However, please note that Kanazawa Red Cross Hospital may be displayed as “Japanese Red Cross Kanazawa Hospital” on the bus. Also, please note that Kanazawa Institute of Technology (KIT) may be displayed as “Kanazawa Kogyo University” on the bus.

Kanazawa Red Cross Hospital.

6. When you get off, put 360 JPY in cash and your numbered ticket into the fare box next to the driver's seat and exit through the front door.

How to Get to Gate for Venue from Bus Stops

Please note that there are two pairs of KIT bus stops.

A. If the bus stops on the road that divides the KIT campus;

Bus stop on the side of the road dividing KIT campus.

1. After getting off the bus, look across the road and you can see the gate for the venue on your left.

Gate for venue.

2. Be careful when crossing the road.

We recommend crossing the road at the nearest intersection with traffic lights. However, please note that there are separate traffic lights for pedestrians and vehicles at the intersection. Please follow the pedestrian lights to avoid traffic accidents.

B. If the bus stops next to a restaurant parking lot;

Bus stop next to restaurant parking lot.

1. Walk in the opposite direction to the bus until you reach the first intersection.

Before you reach the first intersection, there is a police box (koban) on your right.

When you reach the first intersection, you can see a KFC sign in front of you.

Police box (Koban).

KFC at intersection.

2. Turn left at the first intersection and continue to go on.

In around 100m walk, you will reach an intersection with traffic lights.
There you can see some KIT buildings around you.

3. Cross the intersection towards the sidewalk ahead on the right.

Please note that there are separate traffic lights for pedestrians and vehicles at the intersection.
Please follow the pedestrian lights to prevent traffic accidents.

Intersection with separate traffic lights for pedestrians and vehicles.

4. After crossing the intersection, continue on in the same direction for another 100m.
Then, you can see the gate for the venue on your right.